ORAL ORDER: (per D. S.R. Varma, J)

The grievance in the Taken up Writ Petition registered pursuant to the complaint made by one G. Sailoo, resident of H.No.4-3-171, Kamala Nehru Naghar, Jillelaaguda, Saroornagar, Rangareddy District, is that his son G. Venkatesh was illegally detained by the L.B. Nagar Police on 30.1.2007.

In the Counter-affidavit filed by the Inspector of Police, L.B. Nagar Police Station, it is stated that basing on a complaint, dated 6.10.2006, given by one Narayana Kunchala, resident of Kesavareddynagar, Meerpet, Cyberabad, a case in Cr.No.846/2006 was registered as a 'girl missing' case. It is the complaint of Narayana Kunchala that on the evening of 5.10.2006 his daughter by name K. Sudha Rani, aged about 17 years, studying II year Intermediate went to a grocery shop but did not return home and he suspect the involvement of one Venkatesh, who is no other than the alleged detenu, in the missing of his daughter.

It is further stated in the counter that, on 1.2.2007, the alleged detenu was arrested at his residence at Jillelaguda and, subsequent to his arrest, he was produced before the II Metropolitan Magistrate, Cyberabad at L.B. Nagar, on 2.2.2007, and, on such production the learned Magistrate remanded him to judicial custody and as of now the detenu is lodged in Central Prison, Cherlalpally.

In view of the revelations made in the counter affidavit filed by the police that the alleged detenu was arrested in connection with a crime registered against him and has been lodged in Central Prison, Cherlapally, pursuant to a remand order, passed by the Magistrate, we see no ground to interfere in the matter in any manner. The Writ Petition is, therefore, dismissed.
